

Education Subreddits

/r/education: Education
The goal of r/Education is to provide a community in which educational stakeholders can participate in meaningful, reflective, and thought-provoking discourse about educational policy, research, technology, and politics. Additional Keywords, teachers, students, education 49,035 subscribers, a community for 8 years
/r/specialed: Special Education
This is a professional subreddit for people interested in special education, particularly: special education teachers, general education teachers, therapists, advocates and parents. We are here to share professional advice, bounce ideas off each other, share concerns, and advocate for our students. Feel free to share resources, worksheets, good websites, and sales on special education related products. 2,324 subscribers, a community for 3 years
/r/highereducation: Higher Education
Articles and discussion related to higher education. 8,120 subscribers, a community for 7 years
/r/Education Resources: Education Resources
A place for educators to share interesting teaching tools, lesson plans, learning games, etc. No education politics, please! 158 subscribers, a community for 5 years
/r/education uk: Creative Education UK
...for the political, progressive and creative minded. 82 subscribers, a community for 2 years
/r/ECEProfessionals: Early Childhood Education: Preschool Teacher Forum
Come learn, grow and contribute with us. We are an early childhood education discussion forum for preschool teachers and other professionals who would like to be involved in an online community to share ideas, advice, questions, current events, and experiences with other professionals and parents. 2,944 subscribers, a community for 4 years
/r/ukeducation: UK Education News and Discussion
For the United Kingdom of Great Britain (England, Scotland, Wales) and Northern Ireland; UK related Education News, Politics, Employment, Research, Pedagogy, Society, Culture and discussion for all levels of UK education from Primary to HE, both public and private funded. 430 subscribers, a community for 2 years
/r/teaching: Teaching: news, resources, and tips for teachers of all levels of education
A place for teachers to comment and debate about teaching methods, resources, tools, and issues whether they be controversial or typical. Also, if you need a place to vent. :) 17,938 subscribers, a community for 7 years
/r/AdultEducation: Adult Education & Adult Learning Theory
This is a place to discuss Adult Learning Theory, Adult Education, Corporate Trainers, etc. 1,433 subscribers, a community for 4 years

/r/higheredtechnology: Technology and its Use in Higher Education

A discussion surrounding the evolving use of technology in the higher education field.

192 subscribers, a community for 3 years

/r/GAFE: GAFE: Google Apps For Education

A place for educators to talk about this piece of education technology. Let's talk about the practises and possibilities of GAFE!

141 subscribers, a community for 2 years

/r/FOANed: Free Open Access Nursing Education

A venue for sharing education and research pertinent to the art and science of nursing.

126 subscribers, a community for 11 months

/r/gamifiededucation: Gamification in Education

News, ideas, research and everything about Gamification in Education.

80 subscribers, a community for 1 year

/r/UKhighereducation: UK Higher Education

A subreddit for everyone interested or working in UK higher education. Academics, administrators, works and everyone else welcome.

46 subscribers, a community for 10 months

/r/coursera: Online Education for the Masses

Coursera is a social entrepreneurship company that partners with the top universities in the world to offer courses online for anyone to take, for free. We envision a future where the top universities are educating not only thousands of students, but millions. Our technology enables the best professors to teach tens or hundreds of thousands of students.

2,473 subscribers, a community for 4 years

/r/PrimaryEducationUK: Primary Education UK

A place for teachers, TAs and school figures to share news, resources, advice or simply chat about primary education in the UK.

16 subscribers, a community for 9 months

/r/OpenEd: Open Education

Open education resources, including free lectures, courses, course materials, and textbooks.

930 subscribers, a community for 8 years