

UK University Subreddits

/r/aru: Anglia Ruskin University
A subreddit for ARU students. 9 subscribers, a community for 4 years
/r/Edinburgh_University: University of Edinburgh: Nec temere, nec timide
A subreddit for students, staff and all things related to the University of Edinburgh. Useful links: For New Students. The homepage of the University of Edinburgh and also EUSA . The newspaper " The Student " 735 subscribers, a community for 4 years
/r/Glasgow_University: TheUniversityOfGlasgow: for students who attend the 4th oldest university in the UK
The University of Glasgow - Via Veritas Vita 21 subscribers, a community for 3 years
/r/oxforduni: University of Oxford
News, events, chat, questions and other information for members, alumni of the University of Oxford and anyone else. 1,027 subscribers, a community for 5 years
/r/cambridge_uni: University of Cambridge
A Subreddit for discussing anything affecting student life at the University of Cambridge, and life in Cambridge. 1,361 subscribers, a community for 5 years
/r/OpenUniversity: The Open University
An unofficial subreddit for students, staff and anyone interested in the UK's Open University to discuss matters relating to the OU. 417 subscribers, a community for 5 years
/r/UniversityOfWarwick: University of Warwick
A subreddit for the students of the University of Warwick; current, prospective and alumni are all welcome! 562 subscribers, a community for 5 years
/r/essexuni: University of Essex
Official subreddit of the University of Essex, Colchester, UK. 144 subscribers, a community for 4 years
/r/PlymouthUniversity: Plymouth University
The official Plymouth University subreddit 180 subscribers, a community for 3 years
/r/RHUL: Royal Holloway, University of London
Founded in 1879 by Thomas Holloway, Royal Holloway, University of London, was originally a women-only institution and was opened by Queen Victoria in 1886, joining the University of London in 1900. 190 subscribers, a community for 4 years
/r/sheffieldhallam: Sheffield Hallam University (SHU) Subreddit
For students of Sheffield Hallam University (SHU), England, who should probably be studying or drinking instead of being on Reddit. :D 179 subscribers, a community for 3 years